Sarah,

Your Life Signature™.

Three circles. One signature.

YOUR LIFE SIGNATURE SENTENCE

“I’m here to build the rooms where quiet voices get heard, bringing everyone with me.”

*in your words
building · clarity · young people*

DO NOT SETTLE HERE

The Three Zones.

The pin on your map shows where you sit. Here's what it means.

Drift.

passion + gift, no burden · "empty by Thursday"

Frustration.

passion + burden, no gift · "no traction"

Burnout.

gift + burden, no passion · "duty without joy"

GIFT + BURDEN · LOW PASSION

The Burnout Zone.

“Duty without joy eventually becomes exhaustion.”

Your gift and your burden are strong, but the fire is low. The way back: reconnect with what you’d do for free.

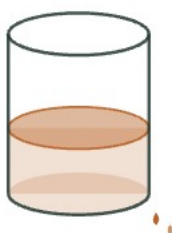

THE FIRST MOVE

Put one hour this week back into the thing you would do for free.

The Depth Check.

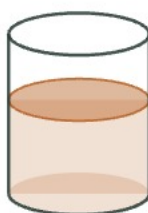

You've seen your circles flat, from above. Now turn them on their side: every circle is a vitality bucket, and it can fill or leak.

WHAT WOULD STARVE THIS SIGNATURE

Watch out for work that leaves you with barely seeing people, working with no team, and a great voice ignored.

The fire in your bones.

YOUR PASSION

Community.

one of twelve passion directions

You come alive where people gather. You build the table, fill the seats, and make strangers feel like they belong.

Passion is not hype or emotion that burns out after a weekend conference. It's a deep, steady flame that fuels faithfulness over the long haul.

— Your Life Signature, Chapter 5

“Even if nobody paid me, I’d do this for free.”

— Your Life Signature, Chapter 5

A QUESTION TO SIT WITH

Which activities, if doubled, would make your life meaningfully better?

What's in your hand.

YOUR GIFT

Motivator.

one of twelve gift directions

You turn a crowd into a team. When something needs to happen, you are the one who gets everyone moving in the same direction.

Gifting hides in plain sight. Your gifts are not accidents. They are assignments. Naming your strengths is not vanity; it's stewardship.

— Your Life Signature, Chapter 6

“What is that in your hand?”

— Your Life Signature, Chapter 6

A QUESTION TO SIT WITH

What feels effortless to you, but wows others?

The weight that builds you.

YOUR BURDEN

The Voiceless.

one of twelve burden directions

You champion what deserves to be heard. Your cause is giving voice to people and ideas the world has not noticed yet.

A burden is not the weight that breaks you. It is the weight that builds you. A true burden will not let you look away.

— Your Life Signature, Chapter 7

“A combination of anger and hope that propels us into purpose.”

— Your Life Signature, Chapter 7

A QUESTION TO SIT WITH

What is the villain you are called to rise up against?

The Band.

Most of your purpose will come through other people, and it will be for other people. Once you see this, you cannot unsee it. Purpose stops being a private word in your head and becomes a relational word in your heart.
